Dear Bob,

Thanks for letting me know you're going to be in town in August. Much as I would like to have a chat with you, I will unfortunately be out of the city during the period you will be here. Pat and I have decided to finally take an oft postponed vacation.

Sorry we will once again miss connections but perhaps we can make it another time.

Yours,

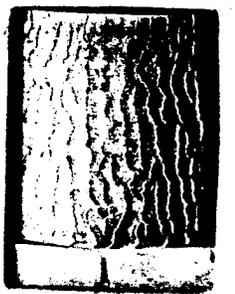

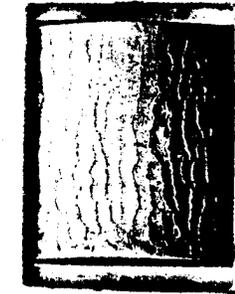

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Stan:

In the past two and one-half years since we corresponded, I have been to Washington several times but always on short notice and only briefly. Consequently I have not followed up on your earlier invitation.

Now, however, I find that I have business in Germantown, Maryland, at 3 p.m. on August 8 and will be flying in from Dallas the prior afternoon. If you are going to be in on a Friday in August and have some space on your calendar, I would like very much to drop by.

Please let me know if you are free.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Robert G. Armknecht
